

Proof the Arm of God must be God

In Ex 6:6 and Duet 5:15:

* God told Moses ONLY HIS ARM saved the Hebrews, they DID NOT save themselves.

And in Job 40, God himself states:

* NO ONE has an ARM like God.

* Your right ARM can NOT save you.

Now notice, God has stated VERY PLAINLY that YOU can NOT save yourself, only HIS ARM can. So when reading the Isaiah 53 verse set, you have to realize that the ARM OF GOD can not be the Hebrews (God's ARM saved them, they did not), and it can't be some simple man (no man's ARM can save himself, let alone others).

It's fairly obvious that the ARM OF GOD in Isaiah 53, MUST BE the actual ARM OF GOD, especially since that ARM OF GOD is expected to save MANY in the world from their sins (those that accept him).

Further, the name for the ARM OF GOD was given in the Isaiah 53:1, Job 40:9, Ex 6:6, and Duet 5:15 verse sets as "zeroah", all being the same ARM OF GOD. Yet in Job 40:14, where God is talking about YOUR own arm NOT being able to save you, God uses the word "yamiyn" and NOT "zeroah".

It's clear that God is being VERY SPECIFIC about how ONLY his ARM is able to save and YOUR arm can NOT save you.

The New Testament account shows a direct correlation between the ARM OF GOD in Isaiah 53 and the HAND of God (Jesus) in the New Testament. Both accounts show much the same character of events and the same ARM OF GOD showing up as a man, being despised and rejected by those he came to save, etc... But as both say, Jesus showed up to save us from our sins.

Why?

Isa 59:1 Behold, the LORD'S hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear: 2 But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear.

God is saying here that HIS HAND can save AND he could hear us pray to him, EXCEPT our SINS have separated us from him and turned him from us such that he won't hear.

Yet if anyone wanted to return to God there was no way set up for it, hence no INCENTIVE to for us to return to God:

Isa 59:15 Yea, truth faileth; and he that departeth from evil maketh himself a prey: and the LORD saw it, and it displeased him that there was no judgment. 16 And he saw that there was NO MAN, and wondered that there was NO INTERCESSOR: therefore

HIS ARM brought salvation unto him; and his righteousness, it sustained him.

By God sending HIS OWN ARM as a man to die for our sins, he's in effect paid the price for sin of those who would believe him. With the sin paid for, God could then turn back to us and listen to our prayers.

The only one capable of saving is God himself, God's own ARM, sent as a man as described in Isaiah 53. That man would have to CONFIRM himself being the ARM OF GOD and as such, a part of God himself. And Jesus did just that.

Jesus gave a set of statements that LOCK him to being AT LEAST God's HAND:

(Jesus speaking)

Joh 10:27 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:

(Jesus is also described as the good shepherd, not running when danger arises, but laying down his life for his sheep, much like Isaiah 53 where the "man" or "servant" lays down his life for the sins of the world.)

28 And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. 29 My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand. 30 I and my Father are one.

* Sheep or followers are given into Jesus's hand by the Father.

* No one is able to pluck them out of Jesus's hand.

* No one is able to pluck them out of the Father's hand.

* Jesus and the Father are one.

Jesus has plainly admitted to being AT LEAST God's HAND. Hence Jesus is the ARM OF GOD, or God's hand.

As such, there isn't any split up of God and there never was. God is still the same God he's always been. He simply sent his own ARM to save the world similar to when he saved the Hebrews long ago "through a mighty HAND and by a stretched out ARM".

God made it all, Jesus died for our sins.
