

Have respect unto the covenant: for the dark places of the earth are full of the habitations of cruelty ... (Ps 74:20)

But as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be...(Mt 24:37)

And it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them, That the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose. And the LORD said, My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh: yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years. There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown. And GOD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. And it repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart. And the LORD said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth; both man, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made them. But Noah found grace in the eyes of the LORD...(Ge 6:1-8)

“And the LORD said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it” - Job 1:7 (see also Job2:2)

ABOUT THIS ITEM

From the Publisher

From both a Christian and objective perspective, and through his unique approach, the author reveals a complex and ingenious scheme that is rapidly unfolding as this century nears its end. What distinguishes this expose from all the others is the careful, thorough and accurate in-depth treatment of the three primary movements.

Does the Bible address this phenomenon? Do the Scriptures predict increased activity of this type as history comes to a close? Are there human co-conspirators who are facilitating the "plan"? Are the world systems that are being implemented pawns in the hands of so-called other-worldly beings? These and other relevant questions are given careful attention by Mr. Christopher.

Book Description

Paul Christopher began his personal investigation and research into the UFO phenomenon in 1972. Born and raised in northeast New Jersey, he periodically witnessed an assortment of unusual nocturnal lights. One particular instance was at the Wanaque Reservoir, a hotbed for UFO activity during 1966 and 1967, approximately 40 miles from his home. One week after observing a bright red and green spinning object above the water, he contacted the late J. Allen Hynek, founder of the Center for UFO Studies. They began exchanging pertinent information via letters. Since that time, Paul has continued his diligence in the field, and strives to keep abreast of every UFO related circumstance. This work is a reflection of his long-standing passion for the subject and 25 years of extensive research.

Topics discussed in the book include:

* UFO Sightings * UFO Contacts * Alien Abductions * Crossbreeding * Apparitions of the Virgin Mary * The Contactees of the 1950s and 1960s * Benjamin Creme * Lord Maitreya * Shambhala * The Ascended Masters of the Great White Brotherhood * Theosophy * Channeling * Automatic Writing * The Ouija Board * The New Age Movement * The Ashtar Command * The Divine Plan * Power Spots * The Harmonic Convergence * Numerology * The Cypher 6 Code * Magick * The HAARP Project * The Electromagnetic Spectrum * Psychological Warfare * Spiritual Warfare * Mysterious Creatures * The Chupacabras * Human/Animal Mutilations * Demonology * Demonic Possession and Oppression * The Occult * Occult Trinities * The anti-Christ * Armageddon and the Apocalypse * The New World Order

THIS IS THE BOOK YOU'VE BEEN WAITING FOR!

Paul Christopher has done an outstanding job of presenting complex, multi-layered information in a compelling, easy-to-read format. Each sentence is packed with meaning and is presented in a questioning style that allows the reader to consider the possibilities. Watch this author closely for the latest, most relevant information on a subject that has been riddled with bunk and disinformation. The author links the UFO phenomenon with the presently forming New World Order, the New Age Movement, and the Occult. WHAT HE TELLS YOU MIGHT SAVE YOUR LIFE!

A refreshing change

This book is a lively different approach to the UFO phenomenon. It is not all about conspiracies, little green men or sightings in general, it leans toward the religious side and nature of the UFO story in general. It brings together the religious and unexplained worlds together and demonstrates that what we seem to know about the UFO phenomenon, goes far beyond most people's comprehension. The only reason I have written this review is that it challenges the status quo, it actually makes you think! The book is thoroughly researched with good documented evidence and appeals to a more inquisitive type of person, people who want answers that they cannot or dare not ask for.

Don't Overlook This One....

'Alien Intervention: The Spiritual Mission of UFOs' presents an intriguing perspective to an already mystifying and complex phenomenon. God help us if the author, Paul Christopher, is correct!

Searching for the Truth? This is the Book for you!!

As one who has been searching for material on the UFO Phenomenon, I was very excited to come across Paul Christopher's book - Alien Intervention. I found this book to cover most aspects of UFOs, including information from the first sightings, abductions, people and groups involved and the why's of, mysterious and unexplained phenomena related to UFO's, and much, much more. But the most important item featured between these two covers is the information that links the UFO Phenomenon to the spiritual realm and the impact that this will have upon each and everyone of our lives. If you are seeking after the truth and are concerned for what lies ahead, then this is definitely the book for your library!! I find that I continually go back to this book for reference material. This is one book that you can't afford to pass by!!

Astounding UFO Revelations We All Need To Be Aware Of

Although I'm not a UFO fanatic at all, the book gave me intriguing information that I had never considered. I'm glad I read the book 'just in case' and so as not to be deceived.

UFO'S: Prelude To Invasion By New Age Deity?

Increased Sightings of Unidentified Flying Objects Give Rise to Questions of Origin and Intent.

When news came across the wire recently of police officers in several Illinois counties witnessing an unidentified flying object the size of a three-story house, and that one of them had snapped a Polaroid of the triangular object, I sat up and took notice. Unlike many UFO buffs, law enforcement personnel are credible, trained observers. The FBI and the National Institute for Discovery Science are following up on the as yet undetermined phenomenon.

As a Christian researcher and author of two books on the New Age, I find the increasing regularity of UFO sightings to be prophetically intriguing. This is because a growing doctrine within the New Age Movement claims that the gods of mythology and the human race as we know it today, is the direct result of extra-terrestrial "UFO" activity.

In the introduction to his best selling book, Chariots of the Gods, Erich von Daniken, who, it might be argued, is one of the fathers of the New Age Movement as it relates to ufology, said:

I claim that our forefathers received visits from the universe in the remote past, even though I do not yet know who these extra-terrestrial intelligences were or from which planet they came. I nevertheless proclaim that these "strangers" annihilated part of mankind existing at the time and produced a new, perhaps the first, homo sapiens.

As was illustrated in the Hollywood films Contact, and Close Encounters Of The Third Kind, Erich von Daniken's hypothesis took America by storm in the 1960's with the proposition that mankind was possibly the offspring of an ancient, perhaps ongoing, extra-terrestrial experiment. New Age ufologists like Daniken also see the gods of mythology as evidence of, and a reaction to, an encounter with other worldly beings. They claim that ancient men would have considered space travelers as gods and would have recorded their arrival, their experiments, and their departure, in hieroglyphs, megaliths, and stone tablets, as a "supernatural" encounter between gods and men.

Mr. Daniken continues: While [the] spaceship disappears again into the mists of the universe our friends will talk about the miracle--"The gods were here!" They will make a record of what happened: uncanny, weird, miraculous. Then their texts will relate--and drawings will show--that gods in golden clothes were there in a flying boat that landed with a tremendous din. They will write about chariots which the gods drove over land and sea, and of terrifying weapons that were like lightning, and they will recount that the gods promised to return. They will hammer and chisel in the rock pictures of what they had seen.

Von Daniken speculates that the odd appearance of some of the gods depicted in various hieroglyphs (human like creatures with falcon heads; lions with heads of bulls, etc.) could be viewed as evidence that "aliens" conducted experiments of cloning and cross mutating both ancient people and animals. Some people accept this part of Daniken's hypothesis as a humanistic alternative to the Biblical account of creation. It's uncertain how many people believe such a theory, but a full eighty percent of Americans claim they believe in the possibility of extra-terrestrial life. Some, like the 39 members of the Heaven's Gate cult that committed suicide in Rancho Santa Fe, California and believed they were being summoned by a UFO trailing the Hale-Bopp Comet, subscribe to an eerie amalgam of mysticism and conventional religion. Not surprisingly, the growing interest in UFOs and the paranormal has given birth to a host of popular television specials and weekly programs depicting such other world creatures and those who claim to have encountered them.

One of the more disturbing aspects of UFO phenomena are the reports, which continue to come in from around the world, of nighttime abductions by small wide-eyed creatures who supposedly pilot UFOs and conduct various medical experiments on their abductees. The New Age Movement argues that such activity would be proof of an ongoing experiment between humans and aliens, and they note that the radical aspects of such experiments have included impregnating abductees and later returning to remove the hybrid embryos.

THE HISTORICAL RECORD

Scripture and extra biblical legends tell of a visitation of the earth by heavenly beings. Some of the references include:

- The Egyptian people originally migrated from the biblical land of Shin'ar, also known as the Land of the Watchers (one of the ancient names of the mysterious visitors). The Egyptians called it Ta Neter--The Land of the Watchers "from which the gods came into Egypt."
 - The Sumerian scribes referred to the watchers as Anunnaki, which, they said, "came from Nibiru" to judge/rule the inhabitants of the earth. Some have interpreted Nibiru as "a distant planet", but the actual translation is, "Those Who from Heaven to Earth Came."
 - In the Bible references are made to the Anakim and to the Nephilm also meaning those who came from Heaven to Earth.
 - In the Book of the Dead there are prayers for deliverance from the Watchers (Tchatcha, the princes of Osiris), who came from Ta-Ur, the "Far Away Land."
 - In the Book of Jubilees the Watchers are compared to the "supernatural beings" mentioned in the sixth chapter of Genesis as having come down from heaven to cohabit with women, a union ultimately leading to the birth of the giants.
 - From the Dead Sea Scrolls (Genesis Apocryphon) we learn that 200 of a larger group of powerful angels called "Watchers" departed from the higher Heavens and sinned. The fallen class of Watchers are considered by some to be the creatures referred to in the Book of Jude as the "angels which kept not their first estate" and who are reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day.
 - Ancient Chinese folklore tells of visitations from a distant land of "flying carts."
 - A Sanskrit text--the Drona Parva, documented "dogfights" by extraterrestrial visitors in flying machines.
- But men like Von Daniken claim that the Bible is their best advocate and the "greatest UFO book of all time!" The "wheel" in Ezekiel 1:15, the "pillar of cloud" in Exodus 13:21-22, the giants of Genesis 6:4, and Elijah's "chariot of fire" (2 Kgs 2:11), are all viewed as examples of "UFO" activity by New Agers.

But is the record found in Genesis chapter six a description of reproductive experiments conducted by advanced extra-terrestrial creatures? Or is it the retelling of something even more sinister?

A CHRISTIAN ANALYSIS VS THE NEW AGE VIEW

Regardless of one's interpretation of the ancient records, one fact remains. Thousands of years ago heavenly beings visited the earth. They engaged in procreative experiments resulting in a race of mutant beings called nepheli. The final result appears to have been an immediate judgment from God, who ordered Israel to destroy the nepheli and its descendants. Thousands of years later Jesus spoke of the events occurring during the days of Noah as being comparable to the days leading up to the Rapture of the Church (Matthew 24). This prophecy is remarkable when one realizes that after God judged the celestial beings who cohabited with the Noahtic women, all such comparable activity apparently ceased until about the year 1940. Then, following the infamous Roswell incident which occurred in New Mexico in 1947, modern people from around the world began encountering strange creatures conducting procreative experiments with increasing regularity.

One is forced to wonder: What's going on? Who are these creatures? Are the current "UFO" visitors the same as those of Noah's day? If so, what is this reproductive experimentation about?

Perhaps the answer to this question (the Christian's analysis vs the New Age view on "aliens") is hidden in the first six chapters of Genesis. Very soon after the Fall of man we find in Genesis 3:15 the protoevangelium (the promise that the seed of the woman would someday bring forth a child [Jesus] capable of destroying the serpent's [Satan's] power). In response to the promise, supernatural beings (fallen angels?) appeared from the heavens and performed reproductive experiments on human women (Genesis chapter six). Was Satan attempting to intercept, pollute, and thereby destroy the righteous seed? Was he trying to cut off the birth line of the Messiah? Perhaps. Satan's ancient goal included cutting off the line leading to the Messiah. Satan led Pharaoh to destroy the Hebrew children so the deliverer might not be born. Herod sought the baby Jesus in the New Testament in order to have Him killed. In Revelation, chapter 12, we see the devil (dragon) waiting to destroy the messianic seed as soon as it is born of the woman.

But Dr. I.D.E. Thomas, in his book, The Omega Conspiracy, suggests that Satan had even bigger plans at work in the sixth chapter of Genesis. He claims that Satan (as opposed to aliens) was trying to produce a race of mutant warriors by breeding fallen angels with women in an effort to exterminate the children of God. From a Christian's point of view this could explain how people like the Sumerians of Mesopotamia, who were enemies of Yahweh, appeared out of nowhere around B.C. 3500, bringing with them a pantheon of deities, the first written language, and a superior knowledge of earth sciences. This may also explain why many of the religions that followed Sumerian mythology, including Greek mythology, emerged from the original idea that powerful beings, with names like "Zeus" and "Apollo," visited the earth, intermarried with women, and fathered half human children. Dr. Thomas believes recent "UFO" abduction activity may point to the birth of a new race of anti-God warriors, as we approach the end of the age and the coming of Armageddon.

ENTER LYING WONDERS

A question arises: Does Genesis chapter 6 support the New Age theory that alien creatures traveled from distant planets in UFOs, performed reproductive experiments on women, and were afterward honored in the images and folklore of the gods of mythology? Or, is Dr. I.D.E. Thomas correct in stating that the story in Genesis is a record of fallen angels acting in accord with Satan? What, if anything, could this tell us about the current interstellar phenomena? Are we experiencing an ongoing invasion of earth by intergalactic scientists, or is Satan busy advancing the most sophisticated con game in history?

We know that the rapture of the Church will be accompanied by "...fearful sights and great signs...from heaven" (Lk 21:11). Perhaps Satan is contriving an "alien invasion" to explain the disappearance of so many people at once! If eighty percent of the population believes in the possibility of extra-terrestrial intelligence, wouldn't this be a powerful form of deception? And since New Age theology produces a growing belief among some contemporary church groups that flying saucers will be the method "God" uses to retrieve the Christian community during the Rapture, couldn't the UFO sightings phenomenon play a part in the great deception that will pervade the earth following the Rapture?

We read in 2 Thessalonians 2:8-12:

And then shall that Wicked [one] be revealed...whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders....And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness [emphasis added].

The world authorities remaining to make up the governments of the Antichrist will need an explanation for those taken in the Rapture. People from around the world will be missing! Now imagine: If the Rapture was followed by hundreds of "space craft" landing on earth piloted by creatures who appeared to be advanced humanoids, couldn't these beings claim to have removed the Christians into some kind of high-tech "rapture," and simultaneously present their leader (antichrist?) as the messiah? Couldn't they point to ancient mysteries, megaliths, pyramids, and the gods of mythology, as proof of an ancient visitation of planet earth? The late Pulitzer Prize-winning author and agnostic Carl Sagan was, until his death, working on a screenplay about the ramifications of just such a savior who appears in the coming millennium! Humanists like Mr. Sagan argue that evidence such as the meteorite which has been hypothesized as indicating that microscopic life existed on Mars millions of years ago, is proof that prehistoric life forms (ET's) could have moved throughout the universe for untold millennia.

DID DANIEL KNOW "LYING WONDERS" WERE END TIME UFOS?

What are the "lying wonders" referred to in 2 Thessalonians that will accompany the appearing of the Antichrist? According to the Book of Daniel, the Antichrist will "honour the god of forces: and a god whom his fathers knew not" (Dan. 11:38). The literal Hebrew translation means "an alien god" (alien to Hebrew culture). Baalhazor, the aforementioned "god of forces," was originally known as the lord of sky and battle. As Baalbamoth he was the lord of the aerial regions. As Baalzebub he was the lord of those who fly, or quickly flit from place to place. In the New Testament the same spirit is referred to as the prince of the powers of the air (aer, circumambient air encompassing the surface of the earth). Therefore, the lying wonders adjoined to the coming of the Antichrist could very well be what we call flying saucers.

The bottom line? Biblical and extra biblical documents offer a startling proposition: While some UFO sightings can be explained as military or naturally occurring phenomena, others cannot. Whatever or whoever they are, the reality of UFO activity can no longer be doubted. One concludes that these beings are either advanced humanoids from outer space, or that this activity signals an ongoing deception of demonic design. If the current UFO activity is demonic and indicates Satan has for centuries planned an "alien" visitation in order to, among other things, explain the rapture of the church, it is reasonable to believe that his plans have heretofore included indoctrination and advanced intelligence. Military invasions always involve preliminary and clandestine maneuvers, and Satan's plans to deceive the past, the present, and the future World Order, would first involve covert strategies of brainwashing, political manipulation, and the positioning of his agents in places of power.

Not long ago people who supported such UFO interpretations were the object of scorn. Because of accumulating evidence and reputable eyewitness accounts, this is no longer the case. That some kind of unexplained phenomenon, called the UFO experience by some, occurs, is beyond question. UFO reports are coming in at the alarming worldwide rate of about six sightings per hour! While I believe the New Age Movement's connection between UFO phenomenon and the origin of man is erroneous, I nevertheless credit New Agers for recognizing the high possibility that UFO activity is perhaps a first step towards developing the schemes of a super intelligent force, a power which may energize the UFO phenomenon today.

What New Agers describe as the goals of a "highly advanced alien civilization," is perhaps better defined as the plotting of evil supernaturalism.

What Are Those UFOs Doing?

The following information is taken in part from THE GODS WHO WALK AMONG US

"While many Christians and New Age devotees are sincere, giving people, the lasting result of the New Age Movement is nevertheless demonic, self-absorbed, and paves the way for the coming of paganism's preeminent materialization—the god-king of the Great Tribulation.

NEW AGE ANGELS AND THE CHARIOT OF THE GOD-KING

When I was a child my father made an amazing discovery while deer hunting in the mountains of Arizona. Several large and perfectly spherical craters, perhaps twenty feet across and eight feet deep, were located in an unexplored section of the range where he was hunting.

The mysterious cavities were so precise that it looked as if an enormous white-hot ball had pushed into the rock, and the finish on the walls was such that rainwater filled the orbs. The sides of the holes were slick and each “pool” contained deer that had fallen in and drowned while attempting to drink the water. Dad took pictures of the obscure semispherical holes (he showed them to the family and I remember being especially impressed), and led a representative of the Army Corps of Engineers to the location. The origin of the puzzling craters was never determined, and the Corps of Engineers filled the pools with rock to protect the wildlife. A local newspaper ran an article on the baffling holes, reprinted photographs of my father kneeling beside the orbs, and that seemed to be the end of the story. Then, on November 5, 1975, along the northeastern ridge of an Arizona mountain range, Travis Walton stepped out of his pick-up to look at a mysterious glowing object.

While a crew of loggers waited nearby, Travis approached the “UFO” and was jolted by a blast of inexplicable energy. As his companions fled in terror, Travis was taken on-board the “alien” spacecraft and subjected to a variety of physical examinations. His story, Fire in the Sky, is now a motion picture. It reports what’s considered the best documented account of a UFO abduction ever recorded. Is Travis Walton’s story true? Was there a connection between the Walton-UFO and the mysterious mountain holes? Did the experiences of my sister who saw small alien-like “creatures” around her bed at night for years following the discovery mean anything? I don’t know. But the strange phenomenon known as UFO activity is sure to play a part in the coming World Order and in the introduction of the New Age god-king.

As mentioned in chapter one, I believe a portion of UFO activity is demonic. Increasingly, others agree with that opinion. Hal Lindsey states, “I have become thoroughly convinced that UFOs are real....I believe these beings are not only extraterrestrial but supernatural in origin. To be blunt, I think they are demons.” In Angels Dark and Light, Gary Kinnaman says, “I am fairly convinced that...UFO sightings are the manifestations of angels of darkness. My main reason for thinking this is that UFO sightings have never, at least to my knowledge, led a person closer to God. In fact, most UFO experiences have just the opposite effect.” And UFO celebrity and author of Communion (bestselling book about his alleged alien abduction), Whitley Streiber, describes UFOs in terms of demonology. He writes, “There are worse things than death, I suspected. And I was beginning to get the distinct impression that one of them had taken an interest in me. So far the word demon had never been spoken among the scientists and doctors who were working with me. And why should it have been? We were beyond such things. We were a group of atheists and agnostics, far too sophisticated to be concerned with such archaic ideas as demons and angels.” Associate professor of psychology Elizabeth L. Hillstrom points out that a growing number of academics support the conclusion that UFOs are synonymous with historical demons. In her informative book, Testing the Spirits, she writes:

‘From a Christian perspective, Vallee’s explanation of UFOs is the most striking because of its parallels with demonic activity. UFO investigators have noticed these similarities. Vallee himself, drawing from extrabiblical literature on demonic activities, establishes a number of parallels between UFOs and demons....Pierre Guerin, a UFO researcher and a scientist associated with the French National Council for Scientific Research, is not so cautious: “The modern UFOs and the demons of past days are probably identical.” Veteran researcher John Keel, who wrote UFOs: Operation Trojan Horse and other books on the subject, comes to the same conclusion: “The UFO manifestations seem to be, by and large, merely minor variations of the age-old demonological phenomenon.’

It’s easy to believe that demons are involved with “flying saucers.” Evil spirits can manipulate energy and matter, and the theological terms, “Transmogrification” and “Poltergeist” (“noisy ghost”), imply that spirits can make lights go off and on, doors bang, icons bleed, and saucers fly. But if a portion of “flying saucer” activity is demonic, what nefarious purpose is served by the stealthy nature of UFO phenomena? The answer is diabolical. UFO-ism seems to be aimed at preparing the earth for the coming of Antichrist, i.e., an extraterrestrial “visitation of the gods,” and, more importantly, at changing our religious beliefs. This occurs in two ways: First, from a technological standpoint, UFO sightings challenge the claim of human superiority and dispute our unique role in the universe. We are made to feel shallow, undeveloped, unenlightened. Second, from a religious point of view, extraterrestrials bring a message (as reported in hundreds of abduction cases) of easy universalism and New Age mysticism including dialogue of humans “on the verge of extraordinary telepathic and technological growth.” Benevolent E.T.s profess to watch over us and promise to appear at the appropriate time to assist in our next big evolutionary, spiritual, and technological step forward. To prepare us for their coming, popular movies, bestselling books, cultural trends, and religious ideas, focus the earth's masses on "help from above," and New Agers smile and explain "It's okay, they've been here before" and "Don't worry, ancient men simply described flying saucers in terms of demons, angels, and gods, because they didn't understand what they were seeing." In other words, New Agers believe that space vehicles manipulating laws of physics (suddenly appearing and disappearing, operating anti-gravitationally, etc) were assigned "god" or "angel" status by sincere but ignorant prophets, and that Ezekiel's living creatures will return someday in wheels "in the middle of a wheel" providing explanations of our origin and solutions to our problems.

Such New Age claims of extraterrestrials visiting the earth in ancient times and interacting with men is biblically and historically true. Where Christians differ from New Agers is in the definition of who these creatures were and what they were doing. In the Interlinear Hebrew Bible we read:

'The benei Elohim saw the daughters of Adam, that they were fit extensions. And they took wives for themselves from all those that they chose...The Nephelim were in the earth in those days, and even afterwards when the benei Elohim came in to the daughters of Adam, and they bore to them—they were Powerful Ones which existed from ancient times, the men of name.' (Gen. 6:2,4)

As noted in the first two chapters of this book, the benei Elohim were "extraterrestrial" angelic creatures also known as "watchers," "sons of God," and "rephiam." They visited the earth during antiquity and used the daughters of Adam as "fit extensions" or instruments through which they extended themselves into the physical world. They sought to corrupt the bloodline of Adam, to deceive the human race, and to prevent the birth of the Messiah. They represented themselves as "gods," and their offspring, the Nephilim ("fallen ones"), attempted to exterminate the people of Yahweh. In what may be a prophecy of end-time UFOs, Isaiah connected the benei Elohim to "fiery flying seraph." We read, "Do not rejoice O Philistia, all of you, for the rod of your striking is broken, because a viper (Antichrist) comes forth from the root of the snake (Satan) and his fruit is the fiery flying seraph" (Is. 14:29). The seraph (seraphim) were powerful angels known for their brilliance. If, as we suspect, some of the seraphim followed Lucifer in the fall, it could be that such "fiery flying seraph" are the source of UFOs today. As previously noted; the "air" above the earth was considered by ancient Hebrew scholars to be the dwelling place of fallen angels. For more on this visit the Watchers Website at: <http://www.mt.net/~watcher/>

An interesting point of this is made by J. N. Schofield in Man, Myth & Magic:

'The warm interest of angels in man's welfare is vividly expressed in the saying of Jesus that 'there is joy before the angels of God over one sinner who repents' (Luke, chapter 15), and that children have their guardian angels standing as favoured envoys near to God himself (Matthew, chapter 18)...It was through Jewish Christians that angeology, based on the Old Testament and other Jewish writings, entered the teaching of the Church. Angels were set over the life of Nature, and over human communities. God was Israel's portion but Michael was her protector, taught her Hebrew and gave the law on Sinai. Every individual had his guardian angel and babies exposed or aborted were cared for by guardian angels. There continued to be angelic intercessors and messengers of revelation or warning, but further functions were more specialized. There was an Angel of Repentance who brought to man consciousness of sin and the promise of forgiveness, and an Angel of Peace received the soul as it left the body and bore it to paradise. The Angel of Death in Sheol was a good angel and guardian of souls....

Angelic rank was associated with speculation about the universe which increased to...the three heavens known to St. Paul. All these were thought to be above the firmament [the kosmos] where fallen angels were imprisoned, and all were inhabited exclusively by angels, the lower heavens by those in charge of human affairs, the upper by Angels of the Presence. According to some speculation these heavens [the Hajoth-Hakados] were successive stages through which souls must pass, encountering their guardian angels to whom account must be given.'

If it's true that fallen angels inhabit the earth's atmosphere and that, historically, they conducted genetic experiments on the daughters of Adam and thereby produced the mutant nephilim, does the prophecy of Jesus in Luke 17:26 indicate such activity would reoccur before the Rapture? Does recent UFO abduction activity point to genetic engineering of a new race of anti-God warriors (nephilim) as we approach the Great Tribulation? Will "UFOs" provide the grand entry of the ultimate cross-mutation of angelic and human species—the god-king of the New World Order? Time will tell. Until then, "the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way. And then shall that wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming: Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders" [emphasis added] (2 Thess. 2:7-9)."
